

New York Stock Market

New York, August 14.—Taking the session as a whole, to-day's stock market gave a better account of itself than any day of the past week.

The buying from last quarter was again its guide, sending over a list of gains which ran from one to over two points in United States Steel, Union Pacific and Canadian Pacific, and later continuing its operations in this market.

The fact that the Stanley congressional committee had adjourned for two months was accounted an encouraging feature and other activity bearing upon the steel and iron industry were even more favorable.
